

Voluntary Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D)

Draw on our flexible solutions.

Protection for the future is no accident.

More than one in four Americans has been involved in a car accident in the last five years, and in the time it takes to watch a television sitcom, two people will die in car accidents in the U.S. And if that doesn't sound compelling, consider this: experts believe that based on current trends, every single American will be involved in at least one automobile accident in his or her lifetime.¹

More than 35,000 people

were killed in car accidents in 2015.¹

And that's just car accidents.

Reliance Standard's Voluntary AD&D coverage is a convenient, affordable measure of protection you can give employees and their families against the very aspects of life no one wants to think about.

Some optional plan design features for this important coverage are:

Continuation of Medical Coverage Benefit

This benefit will help pay the medical premiums for surviving dependents who, upon the accidental death of an insured employee, elect to continue medical coverage through COBRA or other state-mandated benefits. The benefit payable can be up to 2% of the Insured Employee's Principal Sum, to a maximum of $5,000.

Home Alteration and Vehicle Modification Benefit

This benefit will pay expenses required to modify the home and vehicle of an Insured that becomes wheelchair dependent as the result of a covered loss. The standard benefit is $10,000.

Brain Damage Benefit

This benefit will pay an additional scheduled amount for sustained mental incapacity resulting from accidental injury. The benefit payable can be up to 10% of the Insured's Principal Sum, to a maximum of $10,000.

Therapeutic Counseling Benefit

This benefit pays expenses related to therapeutic counseling for any Insured regardless of which Insured suffered the loss. The benefit can be up to 2% of the Insured Person's Principal Sum, to a maximum of $1,500.

Critical Burn Benefit

This benefit will pay an additional scheduled amount if an Insured receives third degree burns over 25% of his/her body. The benefit payable can be up to 25% of the Insured's Principal Sum, to a maximum of $25,000.

100% Dismemberment Schedule

This enhanced option will pay the full Principal Sum in the event of the loss of one eye, one member, or the loss of speech or hearing. (The loss of a thumb and index finger of the same hand remains at 25% of the Insured's Principal Sum.)

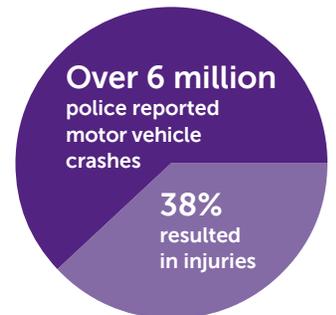

100% Total Loss of Use Benefit

This enhanced option will pay the full Principal Sum in the event that an Insured suffers loss of use (per the schedule in the policy).

Do the math:

The injury rate increased from 733 per 100,000 population in 2014, to 760 in 2015.¹

In 2015 there were an estimated 6,296,000 police-reported traffic crashes. Approximately 38 percent of those crashes (more than 2.4 million) resulted in an injury.¹
