

INSTRUCTIONS

The following information will be required in order to process benefits for the Annuity Policy

1. Completed Claimant Statement
2. Original Certified Death Certificate
3. Original Annuity Policy Form or Lost Policy Affidavit
4. Birth Certificate if Life Income or Joint Life Income Settlement Option is chosen

If the proceeds are payable to the estate of the Owner, then the executor or administrator of the estate should complete the statement. A certified letter of appointment of the executor or administrator is required.

If the proceeds are payable to a minor, the guardian of the minor's estate should complete this form.

If there is more than one beneficiary, then each beneficiary must complete a separate form.

If the beneficiary is a trust, then the trustee must complete this form. A copy of the Trust must be provided to RSL by 12/31 of the year after the Owner's death.

If any Beneficiary is Deceased, a certified copy of the death certificate for each such beneficiary must also be furnished to the Company. If any beneficiary predeceased (died prior to) the Insured, his/her share would typically be payable to the contingent named beneficiary (or to the remaining named beneficiaries if payment was to be shared among the survivors.) If any beneficiary died after the Insured, his/her share of the proceeds would typically be payable to that beneficiary's estate. In this event, we would also require the certified Letters Testamentary or Letters of Administration (appointing the Executor or Administrator of that beneficiary's estate.) In this event, the Executor or Administrator should sign and date the first page of this Claimant's Statement and complete the "Withholding Information" section as well.

If a policy is payable to the "children" of the Insured or to any other group of persons whose names are not specified, a notarized affidavit must be furnished to the Company confirming the number of members of the group, as well as their names, dates of birth, social security numbers, and current addresses. If any group members have died, the affidavit must provide the date and place of death, and must state whether they died married or unmarried, testate or intestate, and with or without children. A copy of any deceased beneficiary's death certificate should be provided to the Company as well.

If the Owner was required to take a Required Minimum Distribution in the year of death, but did not make a distribution prior to the date of death, a Required Minimum Distribution must be made to the beneficiary(ies) before the end of the year of the Owner's death.

Section 5. WITHHOLDING INFORMATION (Federal Income Tax):

The distribution you receive from Reliance Standard Life Insurance Company is subject to Federal income tax withholding unless you elect not to have withholding apply. Withholding will only apply to the portion of your distribution or withdrawal that is included in your income subject to Federal income tax. You may or may not elect to have withholding apply to your distribution or withdrawal payment by checking the appropriate space below and returning this form to us. If you elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution or withdrawal, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

Under Penalty of Perjury, I certify that the tax payer identification number shown below is correct and I am not subject to backup withholding as a result of or failure to report all interest or dividends, or the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding.
